That Anxious Traveller

TRAVEL AND ANXIETY BLOG

---

About Nicky

Nicky is a traveller, a historian, a photography enthusiast, and anxiety sufferer. However, she refuses to let the latter influence the former: after spending too many years feeling defeated by anxiety, she's re-discovering the world with a notebook, a camera, and a thirst for new experiences!

About the blog

That Anxious Traveller was founded in November 2017, and is growing fast. Although my numbers may seem small in comparison, the readership of the blog is growing by a third per month, with a highly engaged audience. Everyone knows an anxious traveller - over 40 million Americans are affected by anxiety - and I provide practical tips and stories to help combat travel anxiety.

There's plenty for the non-anxious traveller, too! I write in-depth destination guides with quality photography, which has led to my site getting 17k page views since launch, in 120 countries. Most importantly, I respect my readers, and share my experiences in an open and honest way. This means that I can take your brand goals, and create a story which will be trustworthy and organic - I love to go above and beyond expectations for collaborative projects!

Work with me, and you can expect quality writing and photography, enthusiasm, professionalism, and a sense of humour!
